complainant/mother. The first such incident was reported by the petitioner to the respondent no.3 on 9.12.2005. The police department has taken effective steps and traced the girl on 10.1.2006 and handed her over to the petitioner. The Assistant Government Pleader further contended that, again on 8.3.2006, the petitioner lodged a complaint with the respondent no.3 about missing of her daughter. Again the same was registered vide Missing No. 23 of 2006 and effective steps were taken to apprehend the girl, who was found on 23.3.2006 and was handed over to the petitioner. It is further contended by the Additional Public Prosecutor that again on 24.7.2006 the petitioner lodged complaint with the respondent no.2 about missing of her daughter Nilima and therefore, the police department once again started investigation and taken following steps, viz :

1. gave wireless message to the Police Stations located in the City of Nagpur as well as Nagpur Rural,

2. search operations were carried out even at Chandrapur,

3 her photograph was published in the Newspapers and other effective steps are being taken by the police department to apprehend the missing girl and the investigation is in progress.

The Additional Public Prosecutor prays for grant of three weeks' time to file additional affidavit in respect of further steps which are/were taken by the police department while investigating the crime in question.

In the circumstances, place the matter after three weeks for admission.
